

BestXecutor<sup>SM</sup>

Where superior insights meet optimal execution

Our first-of-its-kind decision augmentation tool leverages the precision of BestX® transaction cost analysis (TCA) and the power of our FX Connect® trading platform to optimize your trade execution, creating a standardized process of selecting the best medium, counterparty and method of execution for your trades.

BestXecutor empowers FX Connect clients with actionable pre-trade analytics to optimize both request-for-stream (RFS) and algo execution.

Embedded into a client's FX Connect workflow and seamlessly integrated with our GlobalLink Digital<sup>SM</sup> platform, BestXecutor is designed to help you quickly evaluate every deal versus your BestX TCA factors.

The tool allows users to optimize spread, minimize signaling risk, and foster a fair competition among providers — all while filtering by their own trading history.

Key features:

Automated counterparty selection means you can choose the optimal counterparties for request for quote (RFQ) and Algo based on predefined user preferences

Comprehensive coverage handles all foreign exchange (FX) market cash products to meet diverse trading needs (including spot, forward, swaps and non-deliverable forwards)

Flexible, customizable panel size makes it easy to optimize between spread compression and market footprint

BestX opt-in data pool provides increased statistical significance

Optimized performance metrics to close the pre-trade → post-trade loop

A cohesive desktop experience and unified platform offers easy access via a single sign-on

Key benefits

Streamlined pre-trade decision-making

Our data-driven insights and client-specific counterparty setups allow for more timely and informed trading decisions.

Workflow integration

Seamlessly connect with existing trading workflows for a streamlined trading experience. By integrating with our GlobalLink Digital platform, we have optimized trade workflows, focusing on the client journey and leveraging existing application integrations.

Industry-leading analytics

Augment your trade decisions with BestX data and insights at the point of trade. BestX consumes and stores over one billion price updates per day. This means you benefit from accurate TCA that is underpinned by comprehensive, representative and independent market data sources.

Flexible counterparty set-up

Choose from client-specific counterparty setups to tailor the platform for your custom needs. BestXecutor gives you the flexibility to control your counterparty set-up and manage that set-up based on BestX factors and your relationships.

Versatile application

Tap into our BestXecutor tool that works effectively for both Algo and RFQ trading, providing a comprehensive solution for buy-side traders. However you trade, BestXecutor is designed to increase your trading transparency, giving you more control over your execution costs.
